2. The Socio-economic Duty and Social Justice

The Socio-economic Duty requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to reduce inequalities of outcome which result from socio-economic disadvantage when taking key decisions This duty aligns with our commitment as an authority to Social Justice.

	Describe any positive impacts your proposal has in respect of people suffering socio economic disadvantage	Describe any negative impacts your proposal has in respect of people suffering socio economic disadvantage.	What has been/will be done to mitigate any negative impacts or better contribute to positive impacts?
Socio-economic Duty and Social Justice	It is recognised that lack of suitable housing and homelessness is often characterised by issues such as: low income; affordability; impact of childhood trauma; substance misuse; accessing employment / training opportunities; barriers to accessing mental health and lack of independent living skills. The provision of affordable housing therefore benefits those experiencing socio economic disadvantage. Good quality affordable housing also supports wider priorities such as health and well-being, poverty, employment opportunities etc.	There are no negative impacts associated with this proposal.	Housing and homelessness are a cross cutting priority of the Corporate and Community Plan with a multi-agency involvement. The proposal mitigates against chaotic lifestyles by seeking to provide safe and secure accommodation through which lives can be rebuilt.
