A prosperous Wales Efficient use of resources, skilled, educated people, generates wealth, provides jobs	This proposal will prepare young people for life and work by increasing employer engagement with schools; helping to raise young people’s aspirations and to understand and gain the skills and behaviours needed in the workplace in order to help them sustain employment and increase earnings potential in the future.	The programme will be monitored as part of the Cabinet Secretary for Education’s additional £100 million to raise school standards.
A resilient Wales	N/A

Well Being Goal	Does the proposal contribute to this goal? Describe the positive and negative impacts.	What actions have been/will be taken to mitigate any negative impacts or better contribute to positive impacts?
Maintain and enhance biodiversity and ecosystems that support resilience and can adapt to change (e.g. climate change)
A healthier Wales People's physical and mental wellbeing is maximized and health impacts are understood	The proposal will prepare young people in life skills thus maximizing their mental well-being.	To ensure the programme focuses on the encouraging young people's participation.
A Wales of cohesive communities Communities are attractive, viable, safe and well connected	The provision will be community based and will have the flexibility to respond to local need.	To ensure the programme focuses on encouraging community cohesion as one of its social drivers.
A globally responsible Wales Taking account of impact on global well-being when considering local social, economic and environmental wellbeing	The programme will work to ensure high standards are met and maintained that do not conflict with the global drivers.	Any decisions taken will take into account global and well-being issues as part of its day to day processes.
A Wales of vibrant culture and thriving Welsh language Culture, heritage and Welsh language are promoted and protected. People are encouraged to do sport, art and recreation	Equality and diversity is a cross cutting theme of the programme and as such will be integral to all aspects of the programme.	All marketing and promotional materials will be produced bilingually.
A more equal Wales People can fulfil their potential no matter what their background or circumstances	Equality and diversity is a cross cutting theme of the ESF programme and as such will be integral to all aspects of the programme	With the ability to better market and understand data there will be opportunities to target areas of the community that may not currently be aware of the
