1. Are your proposals going to affect any people or groups of people with protected characteristics? Please explain the impact, the evidence you have used and any action you are taking below.

Protected Characteristics	Describe any positive impacts your proposal has on the protected characteristic	Describe any negative impacts your proposal has on the protected characteristic	What has been/will be done to mitigate any negative impacts or better contribute to positive impacts?
Age	Citizens in certain age brackets are known to be, on average, more vulnerable to poverty – particularly young people living alone, those households with more than two children or with older adults with mental health impairments. These groups have been targeted for support as part of the recommended proposal.	None identified	n/a
Disability	Disability is a serious risk factor for experiencing poverty. This risk is reflected in the targeting of support towards households with disabilities and with SMIs	None from this proposal specifically	Keep under review as more opportunities for developing support emerge

Protected Characteristics	Describe any positive impacts your proposal has on the protected characteristic	Describe any negative impacts your proposal has on the protected characteristic	What has been/will be done to mitigate any negative impacts or better contribute to positive impacts?
Gender reassignment	.None identified	None identified	Not applicable to this scheme
Marriage or civil partnership	Single parents are known to be at an increased risk of poverty. This proposal does not target those households specifically but will provide support through the mechanisms that are targeted towards households with children	None specifically, but over time ther may be scope for improve targeting of single parent households.	As described.
Pregnancy or maternity	None identified	None identified	Not applicable to this scheme
Race	We know that nationally there is an increased prevalence of poverty amongst ethnic minority communities although do not hold this data specifically for Monmouthshire.	None specifically identified.	This is an area for further development in the future.
Religion or Belief	None identified	None identified	None identified
Sex	Women are disproportionately affected by poverty and low income, particularly as a consequence of caring responsibilities (both for children and for older relatives). By targeting support at households receiving care this will positively impact women who have been adversely affected in ths way.	None specifically identified.	This is an area for further development in the future.

Protected Characteristics	Describe any positive impacts your proposal has on the protected characteristic	Describe any negative impacts your proposal has on the protected characteristic	What has been/will be done to mitigate any negative impacts or better contribute to positive impacts?
Sexual Orientation	None identified	Not applicable to this scheme	None identified

2. The Socio-economic Duty and Social Justice

The Socio-economic Duty requires public bodies to have due regard to the need to reduce inequalities of outcome which result from socio-economic disadvantage when taking key decisions This duty aligns with our commitment as an authority to Social Justice.

	Describe any positive impacts your proposal has in respect of people suffering socio economic disadvantage	Describe any negative impacts your proposal has in respect of people suffering socio economic disadvantage.	What has been/will be done to mitigate any negative impacts or better contribute to positive impacts?
Socio-economic Duty and Social Justice	The entire scheme and its supporting rationale (set out in paragraphs 3.1.5 and 7) is designed to provide financial support based upon relative need. By providing cash payments to households they will be able to use the money efficiently and with autonomy to meet their own needs. The funds invested into social infrastructure will provide a degree of longevity to support people in the greatest need on an ongoing basis.	No negative impacts specifically identified.	The challenge will be to continue to do more to support our residents through the cost of living crisis in a way that provides the greatest benefit to those in greatest need.
