5. What evidence and data has informed the development of your proposal?

The financial strategy has been informed by a range of evidence and data that notably includes:

- The Council's community and corporate plan, and the suite of enabling strategies that support its delivery.
- Research across Wales and the UK to draw on effective and engaging financial strategies and plans.
- Audit Wales recommendations resulting from financial sustainability reviews across local authorities in Wales.
- Guidance and publications from CIPFA (the Chartered Institute of Public Finance and Accountancy, the professional body for public finance) and the LGA (Local Government Association) relating to financial planning and financial management.
- Reports from the Wales Fiscal Analysis (WFA) team, a research body within Cardiff University's Wales Governance Centre that undertakes authoritative and independent research into the public finances, taxation and public expenditures of Wales.
- Council budget and finance reports and that include recent budget monitoring reports, budget process and MTFP updates and budget proposals.

6. SUMMARY: As a result of completing this form, what are the main positive and negative impacts of your proposal, how have they informed/changed the development of the proposal so far and what will you be doing in future?

The financial strategy sets out the strategic approach and framework over the medium term for the Council's finances and in ensuring that they fundamentally support the delivery of the objectives and aims set out in the Community and Corporate Plan, and that was subject to its own integrated impact assessment. The strategy looks to ensure that Council's finances are put on a secure and sustainable footing and that delivery the of the Council's policy objectives are affordable.

The financial strategy encapsulates the sustainable development principles in so far as:

- It has a medium to long term focus on the Council's financial sustainability.
- Collaboration and partnership working as key to responding to the financial challenges faced.
- Consultation and engagement with members, residents, business and wider public and third sector partners will be a key aspect to the budget process and in the delivery of the financial strategy.
- Prevention will be a key and ongoing focus for the financial strategy and the programme of change and improvement that allows the Council to make better use of limited resources over the medium to long term by tackling problems up front.

There are no significant impacts on the protected characteristics, safeguarding or corporate parenting arising directly out of the financial strategy. Future decisions that impact on the Council's budgetary framework will need to be prudent, sustainable and affordable, and will be the subject of their own Integrated Impact Assessment. This equally applies to the Council's budget process and where budget proposals are subject to their own Integrated Impact Assessment, individually and collectively.

7. ACTIONS: As a result of completing this form are there any further actions you will be undertaking? Please detail them below, if applicable.
