The text reads: "Finally, brothers and sisters, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think about such things." Below the verse is a link to "Read Full Chapter". Further down is a "Receive your daily verse by email" section with a text input field for an email address and a "Subscribe" button. ## Denominations-

Infographic shared from NATRE

The infographic consists of eight colored boxes, each containing a small image and text about a Christian denomination. The colors are blue, teal, light green, medium green, dark green, and light blue.

- Catholic Church
About half of the world's Christians are Catholic. That is 1200 million people
The Pope is the world's Catholic leader, and the Vatican in Rome is its centre
- Orthodox Churches
About one in nine of the world's Christians are Orthodox, from Russia to Ethiopia via Ukraine and Greece - that is about 260 million people
The Catholics and the Orthodox churches separated in 1053 - nearly 1000 years ago
- Anglican Church
There are about 85 million Anglican Christians in the world.
The Anglican Church ('Church of England' in England) began in the time of Henry VIII nearly 500 years ago. It is also called the Episcopalian church.
- Pentecostal Churches
These churches began about 120 years ago, and have grown fast, especially in some poorer parts of the world.
There are about 300 million Pentecostal Christians who share exciting and emotional worship.
- Charismatic Christians
Charismatic churches are modern, growing fast in the last 50 years, often independent from older denominations. They believe in the power of the Holy Spirit at work today. Many live in Latin America. There are about 310 million, 14% of the world's Christians.
- Baptist Churches
There are about 95 million Baptists in the Christian world population, about half live in the USA
Baptism is usually by total immersion in water, not for babies: you must believe for yourself.
- Methodist Churches
About 80 million people are part of the Methodist movement all over the world
Their history goes back over 200 years to the life of John Wesley, who preached in the UK and US
- Other groups: thousands of other denominations make up the rest of the Christian communities.
In the UK these include the Salvation Army, Quakers and United Reformed Churches
Globally, the Lutheran churches (80m) are large, but there are thousands of smaller groups too.

The screenshot shows the Catholic Education Service website. The header includes the logo for 'Catholic Education Service Supporting Catholic Education Since 1847'. The navigation menu has links for Home, About Us, Wales (which is highlighted), Directory, Application Forms, Employment Documents, CES Census, and Lesson Resources. Below the menu, a breadcrumb trail shows 'You are here: Home > Wales'. The main content area is titled 'Catholic education in Wales' and contains information about the three dioceses in Wales: Wrexham, Menevia, and Cardiff. It includes a map of Wales with these dioceses highlighted in yellow, orange, and green respectively. The text describes the dioceses and their coverage areas. At the bottom, there's a link to 'Latest News from Welsh Catholic Schools'.
