3a How much are you applying for? £ 250 - 00

3b Are you applying for, or receiving funding from another source? Yes No

3c Please explain what the grant will be used for

The monies would be used towards the volunteer judges travel expenses, for visiting + judging the villages entering the Competition. Furthermore, it would contribute to the purchase of relatively inexpensive trophies and frames (for certificates) for winning schools + villages.

3d How will your project benefit your local community The Competition acts as a catalyst, stimulating hundreds of hours of voluntary work. It's a tool for engaging local people and children via School to take pride in where they live. It educates on conservation / environmental issues, teaches gardening skills, encourages new social opportunities. It reduces anti-social behaviour, addressing its consequences including the removal of graffiti, litter, fly tipping etc + by encouraging young people to become involved and take pride in their surroundings (ie diversionary activity.)
